Friday Update

Date 6/19/09

- ✚ Staff Appreciation: The Steering Committee is putting together a Staff Appreciation Lunch in the gazebo area on Wednesday, July 29 from 12:00 – 1:00 PM. Thank you to Exchange Bank for sponsoring the event. Flyers will follow soon!
- ✚ Financial Workshop: The last Financial Survival Workshop was very well attended and we are planning to have another in July. More information will follow soon.
- ✚ Updating JTA input: Please remember to update the Enrollment/Registration Form when working with clients after the welcome process. If this form is not updated on a frequent basis, a client will soft exit and you will have to reenroll the client if she/he returns.
- ✚ Hiring events reminders: There are two hiring events coming up: Life Touch on Friday 6/26/09 and OSH on 7/7/09. Both companies have multiple open positions. Please park close to SonomaWORKS or on the street for the OSH event, because we expect many job seekers. This would be a great day to carpool as well!
- ✚ Last reminder: The Solar Fair is happening tomorrow at Finley Park from 11:00 AM – 6:00 PM. Please visit Job Link's table in the Green Jobs Zone.
- ✚ Co-located partner meeting: The new and improved process for skills training will be discussed at our next co-located partner meeting on July 8, 2009 at 8:15 AM in the Orientation Room. Please attend and give us your feedback.
- ✚ Positive feedback: Gayle received an e-mail with the following:

Thank you so much for such a valuable interview yesterday! ...I really appreciate your warmth, enthusiasm, and encouragement as well as your advice. ... I look forward to seeing you again at Job Link.
